It is with regret that we have come to the conclusion we cannot run the Scottish Children's Championships or the Bairns Bucket this year due to a lack of snow. This is obviously disappointing, and I would like to thank everyone who entered. Despite incurring over £500 of costs already the Scottish Ski Club has decided to reimburse entry fees in full. Snowsport Scotland will process this.