Rules of the Hill

-NO Dogs allowed in the centre, on the premises, or on the hill.
-NO Food or drink that is not purchased on premises.
- Hawking. The sale of goods or offering of other services at the Centre – whether free or not – is only permitted with the Centres written authorisation. A licence fee is normally payable. Any person not abiding by the rules of the Centre, or the reasonable request of the organisers, may be banned from the Centre. I hope that this will not be necessary, but all racers' attention must be drawn to these conditions.

-Anyone other than centre staff, or appointed officials caught going up the lift without skis on, or bouncing on the lift, will be given a warning. If this is repeated the individual will be banned from the centre.
-Waxing in designated areas only (Not, around the BBQ or on the Balcony above the bar.)
-There will be power put out for waxing. -Any debris from servicing including sidewall shaving, should be cleared up.
-The side carpark gate will be open for access but please DON'T walk across the slope to access the hill. Please walk around on the green matting.
-No spraying skis on the start ramps.
-Bad language or un-sportsman like behaviour will not be tolerated.
-All equipment hired from the slope needs to be returned and not left on the hill.
-Spectators must remain 2 metres away from the slope at all times.
